

EDPRO

ENERGY GROUP INC.

NEWS RELEASE

London, Ontario, Canada – February 1, 2007

The EDPRO Energy Group is pleased to announce that David R. Eastin has joined its enterprise as a significant shareholder and as Chief Executive Officer effective April 1, 2007. Most recently, David served as President of Superior Propane in Canada and prior to that, held the position of Senior Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer of Suburban Propane Partners in the United States. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Petroleum Engineering from the University of Tulsa and an MBA from Duquesne University in Pennsylvania.

David will oversee the EDPRO business operations on behalf of the EDPRO shareholder group, and, working closely with its founder, Don Edwards, will lead the organization's strategic expansion initiatives into selective businesses and targeted markets.

Don Edwards stated that "David is an important addition to the EDPRO investor and leadership team, contributing his rich industry knowledge and his diversified cross-border experience to our existing skill sets. I look forward to working with David in continuing the growth momentum we have experienced in Canada while embarking on the expansion of our operations into the United States".

"I'm delighted to be joining EDPRO and look forward to playing an integral role in the developments ahead", said David Eastin. "From its inception in 1997, EDPRO has enjoyed stellar results, serving its customers with a high degree of satisfaction utilizing a unique business model. I am impressed with the success EDPRO has enjoyed on many fronts, including its uncompromising commitment to regulatory compliance as well as its integrity in pricing products and services to our customers".
